Execution Plan

- Phase 1 (Q1):
  - Develop a comprehensive funding proposal for salaried positions and begin pitching to current partners and potential new sponsors.
  - Focus on recruiting new mentors and onboarding them to address immediate needs.
  - Conduct outreach to target schools and communities in key cities.
- Phase 2 (Q2):
  - Secure initial funding for at least one salaried position and build momentum for additional roles.
  - Increase program marketing efforts using success stories and data from surveys to highlight impact.
  - Deepen engagement with existing partners through co-branded initiatives or events.
- Phase 3 (Q3):
  - Evaluate progress toward staffing, program growth, and partnership goals.
  - Scale mentoring efforts by onboarding additional mentors and launching in new schools or communities.
  - Solidify long-term funding agreements with key partners to sustain growth.
- Phase 4 (Q4):
  - Finalize plans for additional salaried positions based on funding outcomes.
  - Conduct an annual review of program outcomes, partnerships, and team structure.
  - Set priorities for 2026 based on progress and feedback.

Measuring Success

1. Salaried Positions:
    - Secure funding for at least two full-time positions by year-end.
